Hey Annie,

How are you? I wanted to let you know that the [REDACTED] trial is coming up on December 6 and I expect that the case will go on that date. I have tried to work out a disposition with the defense attorney but at this point the Defendant does not want to plea Guilty. So my question is what can we do about the issue with Stacy Feiden having left the lab? How have you been handling these issues? I bring this up because the drugs in my case were found in a hide, in a car that does not belong to the defendant. The scale (which is not in the hide) the defendant allegedly says is his. If the evidence regarding the scale is excluded the case will be significantly more difficult. Any help you can provide would be greatly appreciated.

Mike

Hey Annie,

How are you? I believe Jean's defendant defaulted, so we are up. I am going to Lawrence tomorrow. I think we agreed that you and Della would not need to come up probably until Wednesday. But I will call you and keep you both updated. Also do you have a copy of the questions you would like me to use. I can't seem to locate the copy I used with you in the [REDACTED] trial. Also my cell is [REDACTED]

Mike

Hi Mike,

FYI: Unfortunately, Stacey Feiden has left the Drug Lab and is currently unavailable to testify.

I also have a case with Jean Curran in Lawrence Superior and she may get me on Tues or Wed (if her case goes forward).

Keep us posted.
